SHAYER'S GROCERY

STORE HAS BEEN ENLARGED FIVE TIMES TO MEET NEEDS OF BUSINESS

So largely do groceries enter the domain of the domestic menage, they have to be given practically daily attention by the housewife. A new hat, a new gown, or a new almost anything, is perennial, to take a word from the florist, subject mainly to fashion, the pocket-book and the taste of the wearer; but groceries must be purchased to fill the needs of the passing day. Happiness is said to be chiefly a matter of attitude, of mental poise, of your outlook upon that which interests you; but without your everyday groceries, there would be no philosophers, for happiness can be postulated only on the full dinner pail, on the things that jolly the palate and satisfy the inner man. We are advised to eat, drink and be merry, but we are merry only because we can eat and drink the things that we would eat and drink. Optimism and pessimism are all referable to groceries; they are at the basis of all our judgments on life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. The very fact that the American is generally a pretty good-natured fellow, optimistic, strong on the "bright outlook" on things, and willing even to take the gambler's chance, is the illustration par excellence of what groceries can accomplish—the of the relative value of the grocery-man to the community.

It was a package of tea that precipitated the trouble in Boston harbor, when we began to feel our oats as a people; but it's a safe bet that it was the wholesome groceries, and plenty of 'em, that stiffened our spine in the first place, brought on the Revolution and accomplished our national independence. Vive la grocery-man.

The grocer is as valuable to a community as any other tradesman—as any professional man you care to name, and some grocers have so appraised their relation to the community. High ground? But would you have it anything else, when you know the value of groceries to health and happiness? When you enter a grocery store for the first time, what is it that at once makes an impression upon you? Its appearance. If the array follows a scheme of order, is tastefully and invitingly displayed, gives you the sense of freshness and everything in its place, and the store is tidy and speckless, the salesmen are tidy and speckless, and withal courteous in their welcome, you are apt to arrive at a favorable conclusion, to make up your mind that here you can trade with safety, that what you buy will be the best the market affords. To the experienced housewife few salient signs tell all the tale. Moreover, she is an excellent judge of her purchases, and the grocer must needs stand well in her judgment if he would have her continue her trade.

The Shaver Grocery Company, incorporated, is "the oldest and largest grocery in Glendale." That fact is stated without comment. They come from as far as Pasadena in their limousines, if it is only to get a loaf of bread. That fact is also stated without comment. Shaver's is advertised as "A cash grocery that delivers," but it does more than merely deliver the groceries; it delivers the other things that explain the magnitude of its trade. In six years the store has been five times enlarged to meet the need for more space, and MacBain says he will take in the block yet or he will find another.

H. G. MacBain, the president and general manager, does not seek success per se, as he does to give the best service and ask the right prices, and to him the best service means a large order.

FORD TURNS TWICE

Thos. E. Frayne of the United Press, Los Angeles office, has a Ford which refuses to stay right side up. On Sunday when Mr. Frayne with his parents and brother were driving through Glendale on their way to Saugus, something went wrong with the steering gear and the car turned over. Mr. Frayne soon had the machine in its natural position and was on the way to an oil station to replenish the gasoline tank, which had been emptied in the mix-up, when the Ford threw itself again. The Frayne family is becoming accustomed to a car that performs like a broncho and none were injured.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Wednesday. Westerly winds.

POPULAR CONCERT

FIRST OF A SERIES OF COMMUNITY PROGRAMS IS HELD SATURDAY EVENING

Saturday evening the first concert of the promised series was given on the city band stand, corner of Broadway and Louise streets. This musical treat was under the management of the Glendale Music Company, one of their pianos being loaned for accompaniment very artistically played by Herbert G. Henning, well known as one of Glendale's most accomplished musicians. The Glendale Music Company had entire charge, selecting those who so kindly took part, and arranging the program, every number of which was well received and appreciatively encored. Leo Goode's "Yiddisher Butterly" was a laughable Ethiopian comedy.

Jack Goode's popular tenor voice made a pleasing success in his rendition of two up-to-date soldier songs, "Send Me Away with a Smile" and "Good-bye, Broadway! Hello, France."

The accomplished baritone, Walter Butterly, made a decided hit with "Uncle Sammy Is Calling You" and the song which makes all our soldiers think and all their dear ones wonder, "Where Do We Go From Here?"

But the surprise of the evening was Miss Dorothy Morton, who sang "The Star-Spangled Banner" and for response to an enthusiastic encore rendered "America" with a spirit and verve which left no doubt as to her patriotism and her exceptional ability as a songbird. Her vocalization all along the register was clear, sweet and convincing. And so another popular singer, who certainly is a song star, will be added to Glendale's enviable list of delightful entertainers.

One object in giving this series of concerts is to discover unknown talent in Glendale. So aside from its other successes, the finding of Miss Morton alone made that first concert worth while. Miss Morton lives with her mother and brothers at 1545 West Second street, the family having come to Glendale from Norfolk, Virginia.

Because of unexpected happenings, the arrangements for community singing were obstructed, and could not be readjusted in time. But on the last Saturday evening of this month, the Glendale Music Company will provide another concert in this series, and should the weather be unpropitious, it will be given indoors.

Next Saturday the concert will be under the exclusive direction of Mrs. Dora L. Gibson, Professor of music, Glendale Union High School.

If any reader of the Evening News knows of good amateur musical talent in Glendale or vicinity, it would be highly appreciated if that fact be communicated to Mrs. Gibson, or to the Glendale Chamber of Commerce.

Other leading entertainers have signified their willingness to aid in giving these concerts, and some of the good ones are yet to be heard from.

MISS WAITE RETURNS TO GLENDALE

Miss Ida M. Waite has returned from a two months' vacation spent in the North. After a ten days' stop at Portland, Oregon, to attend the National Educational Association, where she had the pleasure of meeting her former Normal School instructor, the well-known educator, Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, Miss Waite went to Cashmere, Washington. The next six weeks were spent with Mrs. Tonk, a sister, in the beautiful apple orchard country.

Miss Waite reports a delightful time and comes back ready for the fall opening of school. Miss Waite is principal of the Colorado street school.

THE GAS QUESTION

There will be a meeting held under the auspices of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce in the Chamber of Commerce room, 1010 West Broadway, this Tuesday evening, at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of discussing the recent change made in the gas rate in the Glendale community. If you are a user of gas in this section of the San Fernando Valley you are invited to be present at this meeting and participate in the discussions. Come and bring your neighbors and friends with you.

A. T. COWAN,
President Glendale Chamber of Commerce.

DO NOT ASK ELIMINATION OF DYNASTY

STATE DEPARTMENT SAYS AMERICA DOES NOT INTEND TO DICTATE FORM OF GOVERNMENT FOR GERMANY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, September 4.—The actual elimination of the Hohenzollern dynasty was not prescribed by the American government as a peace basis, the state department said. Indications are now that this government will be content with internal reforms in Germany which insure honesty and safety in dealing with other nations. While officials believe that the elimination of the Kaiser would be a short cut to peace, it is said that no attempt will be made to dictate a form of government for Germany.

GERMAN AIRMEN RAID ENGLAND

OVER A HUNDRED KILLED WHEN ENEMY PLANES FLY OVER SOUTH BANK OF THAMES DROPPING BOMBS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, September 4.—One hundred eight persons were killed and 92 were injured last night in a German air raid over the Chatham-Sheerneff area of England. Both are naval establishments. Six enemy aeroplanes flew up the south bank of the river Thames for an hour, dropping bombs. The size of the "naval casualties" indicates that the bombs blew up a ship or important building where naval men are stationed. Anti-air craft guns and British planes gave battle to the invaders. On the Isle of Wight one person was killed and six were wounded.

EARTHQUAKE AT BOGOTA

MANY CASUALTIES AND HEAVY PROPERTY LOSS RESULT OF VIOLENT TEMBLORS IN SOUTH AMERICA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, September 4.—Three hundred houses are reported destroyed with an unknown number of casualties as a result of a severe earthquake at Bogota, Columbia, a state department message stated this morning.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO NEW ARMY

SAYS HE WILL FOLLOW THEM IN THOUGHT AND WITH ENVY TO THE BATTLEFIELDS AND TRENCHES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, September 4.—Expressing the wish that he might go with the American army to the battlefields, President Wilson addressed the following message to citizens accepted for military service: "Please say to the men on September 4 how my entire heart is with them; how my thoughts will follow them across the sea with confidence and also with genuine envy for I would like to be with them on the field and in the trenches where the real and final battle for the independence of the United States is to be fought, alongside other peoples of the world struggling like ourselves to make an end to this thing which is threatening the integrity of their territory, the lives of their people and their very character. Bid them Godspeed for me from a very full heart."

NEGROES WILL TRAIN WITH WHITE MEN

THERE WILL BE A REGIMENT OF COLORED MEN AT EVERY NATIONAL ARMY ENCAMPMENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, September 4.—There will be a negro regiment at every national army encampment, it was announced this afternoon, thus ending the speculation whether negro troops would be trained with white men.

WAR PROFITS TAX LOSES

HOLLIS AND LA FOLLETTE AMENDMENTS TO THE WAR REVENUE BILL ARE VOTED DOWN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, September 4.—War profits conscriptionists lost out twice when the Hollis amendment to the revenue bill which provided for the establishment of a war profits tax was beaten 57 to 12. The LaFollette amendment to establish a 60 per cent. tax was beaten 50 to 18.

MAKES FOOD DISCOVERY

HUDSON MAXIM DISCOVERS METHOD OF PREPARING CHINESE SOYA BEAN THAT WILL REVOLUTIONIZE EATING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

HOPATCONG, N. Y., September 4.—Hudson Maxim, the inventor of high explosives, declared this afternoon that he had made a food discovery that he believes will revolutionize eating. His discovery is the Chinese soya bean. Prepared in the manner which he invented it is "the most delicious and nourishing food on God's green earth." He will offer it to the American army and navy.

BUSY WEEK

REPORT OF AMBULANCE PILLOWS AND RED CROSS ROSIES BY MISS DOUGLAS

Thanks to Mrs. Yarick, who is to all intents and purposes the chairman of the Red Cross Rosies, they brought in this week $16.40, bringing the total of our three-weeks' campaign to $50. For a time now they will be on sale only at Red Cross headquarters.

Next Friday we will be glad to have as many ladies as possible come armed with a thimble, rather coarse needle and scissors, and help us make some more Little Red Cross Rosies, for we have only three left.

The Ambulance pillow making will be discontinued now for two weeks while we make our plans for the winter's work while school is in session.

We are deeply grateful to the children who have given up their play time to cut filling for pillows and to collect and tie dusty newspapers to provide money for comforts and safeguards for our soldiers. We hope they will make the most of this two-weeks' lull and come back in larger numbers when we open again. We can not announce our plans just yet as we are not yet certain of them, but we will do so soon.

Saturday Mr. Tood took a two-weeks' collection of newspapers to the wholesale house and sold them for us, turning in for the Red Cross treasury $21.48; 50 cents was donated to the paper collectors and $1 was donated by another who wishes her name withheld, bringing the amount up to $22.98, not so bad for two weeks' work, though those who did the work know full well that it was earned.

We hope and intend with such enthusiastic and loyal helpers to bring the weekly income to the Red Cross from the newspapers up to $25, and if the prices rise again as we hope, it might reach a higher mark.

The women who helped make Red Cross Rosies are: Mrs. Fraze, Mrs. Chappell, Mrs. Van Dyke, Mrs. Yarick, Miss Watanan, Miss Butler, Miss

A DAY AT CAMP BALDY

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Case, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Goss, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ellis left Saturday as per schedule for their annual hike, which this year took the direction of Camp Baldy. To make sure of the comforts of life, however, Mr. Case drove an auto loaded with the luggage and refreshments for the inner man, and it is said that some of the members of the "biking" party were glad to avail themselves of the back seat. Mr. and Mrs. Goss and Mr. and Mrs. Weaver "hiked" the entire trip from the end of the car line to Camp Baldy. The camp was very full, but the party had fortunately made reservations and were very comfortable. Mr. Ellis, Mr. Goss and Mr. Case climbed to the top of Old Baldy while the rest of the party, some of whom had made the trip to the top in previous years, contented themselves with shorter hikes around the camp, going to Ice House Canyon and other points of interest. Monday all indulged in the various camp amusements, competitive games, etc. The party returned Monday night.

CHAPERONED JOLLY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Peart chaperoned a jolly party of young people who on Saturday loaded their camping equipment into an auto and left for a three days' camping trip up the Arroyo Seco. They arrived in time to pitch tents before dark and later a "wienie bake" furnished a most appetizing supper for the hungry crowd. The three days were most pleasantly spent by the following young people, who enjoyed the delightful outing: Miss Eunice Peart, Miss Helena Morgan, Miss Helen and Miss Doris Ingledue, Messrs. Elwood Ingledue, Homer, Morgan and Storrs Beckman.

NEW THOUGHT PICNIC

A get-together meeting of the children of the New Thought Sunday School, their parents and friends, has been arranged for Wednesday, September 5th, at Eagle Rock Park. Each is to take his own lunch and leave on the Eagle Rock car at 11 o'clock. An interesting program has been arranged for the afternoon. Come see and hear for yourself.

Miss Olive Williams and her assistants will see that the children are well cared for.

The Sunday School will open next Sunday, September 9th, at ten o'clock.

REV. COWERT RETURNS

BAPTIST PASTOR AGAIN IN HIS PULPIT AFTER MONTH'S ABSENCE

Rev. Vernon Cowert delivered the regular morning discourse at the Baptist church of this city at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, the attendance being fair. The subject for the morning was taken from the 6th verse of the 4th chapter of the book of Zechariah: "Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts." In part Rev. Cowert said:

"We, the people of Southern California, are just now beginning what promises to be the most wonderful evangelistic campaigns ever held in California, and at the very outset let me say that in this work we are holding up our end. The Glendale Baptist church is one of eight Baptist churches in Southern California that paid its allotment in full toward the carrying on of this revival.

"Revival means a quickening of that which is apparently dead. A spiritual revival means a quickening of things spiritual and that all of us need a spiritual quickening is generally acknowledged. The world today is thinking least of things spiritual and it needs waking up.

"The question naturally comes, 'How is this revival to be accomplished?' and for an answer to this inquiry we would point you to the text of the morning, 'Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit.' We should put ourselves under the direction of the divine power. There is temptation to depend on things human rather than things divine. Just in proportion to our efforts to combine the human and spiritual has Christianity failed. The success of this or any other movement will not depend on the individual personality. We should guard against putting too much confidence in the personality of Billy Sunday, and in saying this I do not desire to detract the least bit from the wonderful personality or character of this great man. He is one of the most truly great persons in this world to-day. However, Mr. Sunday can only do his work. It, in conjunction with Mr. Sunday's efforts we do our part. God will certainly do his. Not by the power of Billy Sunday's personality will a great work be done, but it will result from the combined efforts of the Christians of Southern California, backed up by the power of the Holy Spirit.

MINIATURE FOREST AT STATE FAIR

An educational exhibit will be made jointly at the State Fair September 8 to 15 by the Forest Service and the State Fish and Game Commission, according to a report given out to-day by the Forest Service. A small forest of young pine, fir, and cedar trees will be constructed on the Fair Grounds. It will contain a Forest Service lookout tower equipped with telephones, heliograph, fire-fighting instruments, and maps, and will correspond in every way to the lookout stations in the National Forests. Nearby will be a model hunter's camp, showing the proper way to construct a camp fire, and containing mounted specimens of California game birds and animals found in the National Forests. Near by will be a tiny trout stream and duck pond. Two models portraying graphically the causes of forest fires and the results of erosion on a mountain slope denuded by fire will be important features of the exhibit. Representatives of the Fish and Game Commission and the Forest Service will be in attendance to give lectures illustrated with lantern slides and motion pictures on the work of the two organizations.

LIBRARY NOTES

Mrs. J. C. Danford, city librarian, returned Monday night from a two weeks' vacation spent at Venice. Mrs. Danford's return at this time afforded her opportunity to greet the large number of children who attended the last story hour of the year. This closed a very successful year for this particular branch of library work. Mrs. Danford related the story on Tuesday morning and gave assurance to the children that any help the library staff could give along the line of reference work during the coming year was at their disposal.

BILLY SUNDAY'S SUNDAE

If Billy Sunday's Sunday afternoon speil was not a conglomerate theologicopolitico-ethico Sundae,—then, well name it yourself, if you were fortunate enough to hear it.

Sam Jones proved that converte, constructive theology does not need to roll its eyes upward and turn the corners of its mouth Adam-appleward, then groan through its nose like it needed paroxysm.

But as a selective soldier of the Lord King of Righteousness, Billy out-sammies Sam to a finish, so that we remember Dixie's ludicrous but laudable lambaster of hypocrisy as a mere voice in the wilderness preparing the people for the coming of this vituperative viceroy over the Vikings of Vice in high places, not always excluding pulpits.

Billy Sunday is not afraid. As a panoplied Knight of the Golgotha Cross, sans peer and above reproach, he charges full-tilt against any armoured Knight of the Devil regardless of the heraldry on his shield or the slogan on his pennant.

Any attempt at adequate depiction of Billy Sunday's serio-comic sermon on "Grenadiers" would be as futile as to try to cramp a cyclone into a sonnet.

You might as well essay to "saw wood with a hammer."

Why is Billy like Beecher? Because he isn't.

Billy will be remembered, felt and heeded long after Beecher has gone down the beach, possibly forgotten except by the high-brows of liberal theology, New England literati, and the devotees of civil war patriotism, with those in whose lesser minds sticks this limit of Limericks:

Once a great Congregational preacher

Called a hen, "You most beautiful creature!"

She just cackled at that,

Laid two eggs in his hat—

And so thus did that hen reward Beecher.

(May be not quite so bad as that—but allow for "poetic license.")

You can bet that it will be many a decade before Billy Sunday's memory will need to be kept green by a limerick, even one as pictorial as the following:

An evangelist monickered Sunday

Was a ball fan and ring pug on one day—

But he turned to the Lord

And saved souls by the cord,

With a voice like the tide up old Fundy.

Did you ever see the swine following the receding waters in that bay, crunching clams and other seafood stranded and at their merciless mercy? Then suddenly the gorgers throw up their greedy snouts and scamper squealing back toward safety, only to be overwhelmed by the inrushing waters, as Billy Sunday's onrush will rout and clear away the Devil's rooters that are now battenning on defenseless innocence in L. A.'s deep-shored civic bay while the tide of righteousness is at low ebb. So mote it be! Selah!

Billy Sunday is both a prophet and a promiser who makes good. Waves of calumny roll over him with no more lasting effect than dirty water splashed on the back of a big mallard duck, who tiptoes, shakes his feathers, flaps his wings, clean and iridescent as ever. Hostile pellets of "higher criticism" fired at Billy Sunday are as futile as needle-gun dum-dums making lead-pies of themselves against British tanks rumbling their resistless way over a battlefield.

Billy Sunday's influence grows in geometrical ratio, only intensified and increased in volume by all the obstructions planned to thwart it.

This result has been cumulative for years. What does it mean? Who is he? What is he?

Unless all known signs fail, "The Great and Terrible Day" draws nigh. Is Billy Sunday the pre-necessary "Elias come again"? Who can say "Not so"?

Is Billy Sunday, also, "The voice of one crying in the Wilderness of Sin" saying "Prepare for the Coming"?

Who knows? Who can say, "He is not"?

Call it what else you will, this world war is a "religious war," as is every war for righteousness.

Is this war but the preliminary skirmish of the real Armageddon? Who can say "yea," or "nay"?

Again it is said, "The common people hear him gladly."

Already it is questioned if the United States of America should not send Billy Sunday across the ocean on the unique mission of uniting the states of Europe, with Asia at the bat, and Africa in waiting.

Billy Sunday's greater mission is beginning right here in this modern Jerusalem. There is more than one parallelism between the Teacher of Galilee and his most startling proclaimer, just now "beginning at Jerusalem"—(this sunken Jerusalem of the Golden West) the vastest crusade against national, civic and personal vice the world ever knew—the crusade by land and sea which will belt them.

RED CROSS FRENCH CLASS

The afternoon French class in aid of the Red Cross and British Ambulance will be held to-morrow, Wednesday, afternoon as usual, at 3:30, at 1222 Milford street. In New Zealand Madame Helen Cross has been teaching French to hundreds of soldiers and their friends. The lessons as she gave them have been put into book form, and last week Mrs. Woods discovered this excellent little book. The system adopted is exactly the same as that used by Mrs. Woods, and the French exercises fit wonderfully into Mrs. Woods' style of instruction. The book, called Soldiers' Spoken French, costs but 60 cents, and is carried by Fowler Bros. of Los Angeles, who will have a full stock in 12 days. Mrs. Woods advises all her pupils to invest in this admirable handbook.

The ladies of the afternoon French class are planning an evening reception or Soiree Francaise, to which their friends will be invited, and at which will be given a program of French songs, etc.

Mrs. Clyde Morrow and children visited relatives in the city last week. Mr. and Mrs. Morrow were former residents of Glendale but are now living in the Coachella Valley.

C. D. Lusby with Mrs. Lusby, Dr. Ralph W. Lusby, Miss Margaret Lusby, Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Lusby and little son Donald made a jolly family party at Santa Monica, Monday.

Eugene Imler returned Friday from Huntington Lake, where he has been assistant engineer on the dam, in order to enter Throop College, Pasadena, which opened Monday.

Mrs. Margaret D. Longley and children have returned from their beach outing and are now established at their new number, 1628 Oak street, where they will make their home the coming year.

The rose room at Ye Ginger Tavern was the scene of a brilliant affair when Mr. and Mrs. La Force of Hollywood entertained a party of seven guests with a most charming dinner on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Englehart and Miss Hilda Englehart of Brawley were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. D. H. Imler. They have gone to Alhambra, where Mrs. Englehart will visit her sister for a month.

Last Friday Miss Emma Saxton of the Frentz Apartments entertained in honor of her niece, Miss Thelma Fox, of Brawley, with a delightful luncheon. The guests were the Misses Dorothy Sherman and Elizabeth Webb.

Mrs. F. R. Raymond of Los Angeles was the hostess at a beautifully appointed dinner Saturday evening at Ye Ginger Tavern. The guests were Mrs. E. R. Boise, Mrs. Raymond's daughter, Mrs. Tompkins and Dr. and Mrs. Shaw of Hollywood.

E. U. Emery and family are at Santa Monica, having taken a cottage for the week. Mrs. Emery's many friends will be glad to know that she has sufficiently recovered from her recent illness to be able to join her family in their outing.

Throughout the Sunday revival campaign, being held in Los Angeles, the regular weekly prayer meeting at this church will be held Monday evenings instead of Wednesday evenings, this being the only evening in the week when there will be no meetings at the Sunday tabernacle.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ingledue, accompanied by Mrs. L. E. Whitney, Mrs. A. A. Burchfield, Miss Margaret Burchfield and Dr. J. K. Gilkerson of Los Angeles, enjoyed the beautiful Mt. Hollywood scenic drive on Monday, later lunching with their guests on the beach at Venice.

Miss Louise Robinson and her mother, who for the past year have been residing in Santa Monica, have been back in their Glendale home at 1547 Vine street for the past week. With the beginning of the school term Miss Robinson will return to her position for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Courtland Hite of Lancaster motored down Friday to visit relatives in Glendale. They were accompanied home by Miss Alice McCoy, who spent the week-end as their guest, joining her sister, Miss Letta McCoy, who has been Mrs. Hite's house guest for the past two weeks. The Misses McCoy returned home Monday night.

In connection with the Sunday revival meetings now being held in Los Angeles, it has been decided that all of the churches in what is known as the Glendale district shall attend the service next Sunday morning in a body. Notwithstanding this fact, it has been decided to hold the regular Sunday morning Bible school service at the local Baptist church in order to accommodate any who may not be able to attend the large service in Los Angeles.

The last quarterly conference of the year will be held at the Casa Verdugo Methodist Church, Rev. Julius Soper, pastor, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. A. Ray Moore, District Superintendent, will be present and will bring stereopticon pictures illustrating the home and foreign mission fields.

Chester Weaver has returned to his home, 301 South Kenwood, after having undergone a successful operation at the Burbank hospital for the removal of adenoids and tonsils. He is making a good recovery and will be out soon.

LABOR DAY SERMON

By Rev. C. A. Cole

My subject is "A Christian Man and His Brother's Burden." The background for both the subject and its treatment is found in the story of Moses. He, a prince of the household of the King, goes out among his Hebrew brethren and sees an Egyptian taskmaster smiting "a Hebrew, one of his brethren." The text, Exodus 2:11, says: "And it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown up, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens."

The question "Am I my brother's keeper?" fails too easily from our lips. I would have us feel that it is necessary to be Christians that we have a concern about our brother's burden.

We glibly speak of the great strife and gulf between labor and capital. I'm wondering how much real thought and concern we give the particular system.

It is the business of the church to preach the principles laid down by Jesus, permitting every man to apply them as he may think best. All that the church may insist upon is that he shall be dominated by the spirit of Jesus and that he is honestly working to bring in the Kingdom of God.

But every man in the church must know his brother's burden and must understand his terrible need and must give heed to his call.

Ought you and I to "Look upon" our brother's poverty? If so, do him good. We ought to know him. Thousands of working people, even in America with its countless blessings, go through life like lean, warped animals with nothing before them but the course of a broken old age, with none to care and nourish.

The average business man at 40 considers himself in his prime, but many trades workmen at 40 have passed the dead line. Many large corporations will not hire a man over 40. Bitterness? What else?

It doesn't do to say, "He had qualifications to get to the top." He didn't. We face facts. The masses may be ordinary folks, but they have a right to life and enjoyment. Illness, misfortune, lack of initiative, etc., may have deprived them, but they are our brethren.

The real curse of poverty is not so much lack of money as it is lack of opportunity. The worst kind of poverty is that which calls for the sacrifice of the inner life. It is bad enough to have to go to bed hungry, but it is far worse to starve the soul. Poverty means more than destitution and sickness and hunger. The lack of living wages, the back-breaking toil, the insufficient food, the inability to pay doctor bills and rent, these are not so terrible to the poor as is the apparent hopelessness and futility of all effort.

The real curse of child labor is not work, but the long hours, under unsanitary conditions, with improper food and clothing, with body stunted and mind unable to appreciate the highest values of life. The pathetic thing is that life has lost its largest and fullest meaning.

Beneath the deadening toil, the higher instincts have been systematically ground out and from it all there is born in the heart of such a feeling that life is not what it ought to be. Unexpressed though it may be and unformulated, it smolders, awaiting the agitator of social unrest.

One of the most distressing things in our industrial situation is that 30,000 breadwinners, industrial workers, are killed every year in America. Think of it, a city of 30,000, three-fourths of whom are in the prime of life. Widows and orphans left. We wound about 300,000. Labor pays a fearful toll on lost and bruised lives, and in most cases less excusable than in war.

The death rate among poor, of children less than a year old, is 40 per cent. Among rich only 8 per cent. We used to charge this up to the providential dealings of the Almighty; now to the Health Board.

If it was legitimate Christian work for Christ to heal an individual, why is it not legitimate work for Christians to heal a thousand people collectively? Or better, to prevent sickness?

Should we become interested in Health Boards and Provident Associations, and all agencies which have for their purposes the saving of human life?

The time is past when the church can have no heed for men's bare backs and empty stomachs. If the church does not care for men's bodies which it has seen, how can it say it cares for men's souls, which it has not seen?

The suffering among the poor is one of the causes for radicalism among working men.

But another large problem is the industrial adjustment. This has been an age long one.

Thousands think if they could dissolve the labor unions it would solve the problem of labor. The labor union is not the labor problem. If every union were wiped out there would still be the labor problem and worse than it is. We may associate lawlessness, etc., with the Union. Not very far back into history of the church we find same the things duplicated even to boycotts and slugging. Organized labor as such does not endorse acts of foolish men in the labor unions.

The church must see the laborers' burdens everywhere. Forces organized and unorganized comprise the movements looking to his better interests.

For long years the people fought for religious democracy and won. Then for 400 years they have shed their blood upon many a battlefield for political democracy, and they are conquering. To-day they are fighting for industrial democracy, and no human power can stop their onward march and no Divine power will.

The church must inspire men to carry the banner of the Carpenter of Galilee.

It must know that in helping the poor it is helping Christ.

A Christian man must learn that his glory is to see the burden and in Christ's name give a lift!

PAST EXPERIENCE

"Here the government says married men are not exempt from war." "Humph! Every married man who ever tried to boss his wife knows that."

CAN'T BE DID

"Have you an oil painting of John D. Rockefeller?" queried the librarian of the shopkeeper.

"No, ma'am; no one has. He has never been done in oil."

PRINCIPLE, AND POPULARITY

The old philosopher says the fellow who trades an ounce of principle for a pound of popularity gets the worst of the bargain.—D. of I. Herald.

THE BEST UPLIFTER

The hearty hand clasp with the cheering word reaches farther and lifts higher than any other force to the man who is down.—Knight of the Golden Eagle.

"The boys have taken to runnin' automobiles since prohibition struck Crimson Gulch," remarked Bronco Bob.

"Do you approve of the change?" "Yes. As between alcohol an' gasoline, give me gasoline. You can get just as reckless an' excited an' you don't have to upset your system by swallowing it."

FORCING LATE CHICKS FOR WINTER EGG LAYING

Chickens may be forced for early laying by feeding a large proportion of meat in their ration, and their maturity may be delayed by withholding meat and feeding them largely upon corn and like fattening foods, writes a correspondent of the Rural New Yorker.

There are limits, of course, to which these methods can be safely carried, but if it is desired to make early layers of May hatched chicks they should have a liberal amount of meat of some kind or of skim milk in their ration from the start. They will thus develop and "ripen" quickly and will lay correspondingly early.

Some poultrymen fed a dry mash containing one-fourth part by weight of the best beef scrap and keep it constantly before their growing chicks; others keep the scrap in open hoppers, where the chicks can help themselves at will. If young chicks can have free range they will not overeat from hoppers always open before them.—Selected.

WHERE SAM GOT OFF

Among the Monday morning culprits halted before a Baltimore police magistrate was a colored man with no visible means of support.

"What occupation have you here in Baltimore?" asked his honor.

"Well, judge," said Sam, "I ain't doin' much at present—jes a circatin' roun', suh."

His honor turned to the clerk of the court and said:

"Please enter the fact that this gentleman has been retired from circulation for sixty days."—Exchange.

THE PROMOTION OF LUCIDITY

"What effect has prohibition had on Crimson Gulch?"

"Pretty good?" admitted Bronco Bob. "A man ain't supposed to raise his voice now unless he has something to say, and the rest of us are bound to keep sober enough to understand what he is talking about."

—Washington Star.

MOSQUITOES

The mosquito is a small, pernicious insect of the winged variety which goes around punching holes in summer boarders and singing about it.

It is more subtle and insinuating and somewhat less abrupt than a bumble bee, but no less effective. Having been punctured on various spots and occasions by both, we are in a position to speak authoritatively.

Last summer we met a large, potbellied he-mosquito which serenaded our left leg fifteen times with the same song without changing his needle once.

Experience teaches that a mosquito can survive anything but oil of citronella or a hearty slap on the back.—Selected.

TABLES

The table proper is a piece of dining-room furniture supported by hand-carved legs and father's pocket-book. It is the family table, or table that the family sit at.

The cafe table is contra-distinct from the family table by its diversity of uses. The cafe table is sometimes sat at, often sat on, and not infrequently sat under, depending upon the ebriety condition of the settee.

Then we have the round-table. The round-table is what government officials sit at when they don't want to be on the square. The only other species of round-table is the one on which you get a square meal for 15 cents.

Tables also are what we turn on folks to show them they're not so smart as they think they are.

That leaves the timetable. The timetable is an instrument of torture designed to keep you from finding out when your train goes.—Selected.

THE SAME ARGUMENT

"I don't see why you complain about the size of my bill," said the doctor. "It's not as big as it might have been."

"That's all right," replied the man. "I wasn't as sick as I could have been either."—Exchange.

MONEY THROWN AWAY

"I have called to collect the premium on your husband's life insurance."

"Nothing doing! I'm going to get him to try a new company."

"Why so?"

"Because he's paid premiums for seven years, and he isn't dead yet."—Selected.

HOME 192

In the daily routine of life you ask of those with whom you come in contact both honesty and fairness of treatment.

More so, than ever, do you need such help during the sorrows of bereavement. Then, as at no other time, you ask and have a right to expect conscientious service—the kind "you" yourself would give were you able to do so.

You ask and expect an impressive service, free of needless expense, yet fitting the occasion.

In using Scovron-Letton-Frey Co. service either in our mortuary, at the church or in your own home, you will find all these requirements met—quietly, restfully and in good taste.
